

Artist and Music

«German Poetry Pop. About live. Simple. Genuine. Self-ironically, questioning and chaotic. Melancholically dreamy sound wrapped around stubborn lyrics. Gutsy words and a timid piano taking centre stage. Humour. Easiness. Room for rendition.» This is how the Swiss singer-songwriter Maria Wyler describes her music. With her debut album «Alles Gute» (all the best), she presents eight of her songs. They do invite, address and collect us – carry us on.

Living in the city of culture Winterthur/Zurich, since many years, Maria Wylma has her finger on the pulse of time. After attending a professional Musical training and joining the show business awhile, she educated oneself further in copywriting and editing and became self-employed. Today, Maria Wylma is journalist, lyricist and musician.

Maria Wylma's carefully chosen words are tenderly complemented by her music, underlined and thought ahead – that's how the German lyrics gain transparency. Together with Matze Franz (guitar), Dave Demuth (bass) and Dave Mette (percussion), Maria Wylma (vocals and piano) creates a new world where the inside chaos turns out and may get sorted – or may not.

According to the motto of the record label rundum.music, each song has been recorded in one go and mixed on-site in analogue to stereo, for not letting any cutting procedure interrupt the musical flow. The result is a unique album in excellent sound quality: lifelike, emotional, fresh and dynamic.
